DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's Notice of Appeal and Pre-Appeal Conference request filed on 20 October 2008.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see pages 1-5, filed 20 October 2008, with respect to the 35 USC 103(a) rejection of the claims have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 17-19, 23-26, 28, 30, 31, 33-36, and 38-42 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 17-19, 23-26, 28, 30, 31, 33-36, and 38-42 are allowed. Claims 17, 31, and 42 are the independent claims.

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of record is U.S. Patent 5,844,797 to Johnson, which was applied to the claims in the office action mailed 20 August 2008. Suffice it to say, the patent to Johnson at least does not disclose "the reader obtaining a repetitive language kit having a theme related to a planned shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader" or "the plurality of pages including pages having repetitive text related to the theme of the planned shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader" or "the reader sharing an actual experience with the pre-reader, the actual shared experience corresponding to the planned shared experience" or "memorializing the actual shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader through one or more pictorial representations" or "the reader reading the plurality of pages to the pre-reader" as claimed in independent claim 17. Johnson also does not disclose "obtaining a repetitive language kit having a theme related to a planned shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader" or "memorializing an actual shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader, the actual shared experience corresponding to the planned shared experience" or "reading the plurality of pages of said personalized repetitive language book to the pre-reader" as claimed in independent claim 31, or "obtaining a repetitive language kit having a theme related to a planned shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader" or "the reader sharing an actual experience with the pre-reader, the actual shared experience corresponding to the planned shared experience" or "memorializing the actual shared experience between the reader and the pre-reader through one or more pictorial representations" or "the reader reading the bound plurality of pages to the pre-reader" as claimed in independent claim 42, and as such does not anticipate the instant invention as disclosed in independent claims 17, 31, and 42.

Furthermore, there is no combinable teaching in the prior art of record that would reasonably motivate one having ordinary skill in the art to so modify the teachings of Johnson. Thus, for at least the foregoing reasoning, the prior art of record does not render obvious the present invention as set forth in independent claims 17, 31, and 42.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
